v.

Civil Action No. AMD02-3439

LEGUM&NORMANREALTY,INC.,

Defendant.

MEMORANDUMOFPOINTS&AUTHORITIESINSUPPORTOF MOTIONTOSTAYPROCEEDINGSPENDINGSETTLEMENT

Defendant Legum & Norman Realty, Inc., by and through its attorneys, David A. Rosenberg, Kevin M. Kraham, and Ford & Harrison LLP, and Plaintiff Charlita Yvonne Dennis, by and through her counsel, Mark W. Howes, and pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 7(b) and Local Rule 105, hereby moves this Honorable Court for an Order Staying the Proceedings Pending Settlement in the above-styled matter and suspending the current Scheduling Order of February 24, 2003, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1. The lawsuit was filed on October 23, 2002 and a defendant answer was timely filed by the Defendant on December 4, 2002. Pursuant to this Court's Scheduling Order of February 24, 2003, the deadline for discovery is June 4, 2003.

2. Recently, Plaintiff and Defendant agreed in principle to settle this case and the terms of such settlement will now be reduced to writing. The parties will provide for the timing of the dismissal of this action in a settlement agreement.

3. Given the current posture of settlement, the parties desire to stay the case pending execution of a settlement agreement and related documents so as to (i) minimize the litigation costs and expenses associated with the discovery process and (ii) to allow the undersigned counsel to concentrate their efforts in bringing the matter to a close without, at the same time, expending unnecessary time and effort engaged in discovery and pre-trial investigation. Accordingly, and in the interests of judicial economy, the parties' request that this action be stayed and that the Court's current Scheduling Order of February 24, 2003 be suspended.

4. The requested stay will not adversely affect the Court's management of this case as no trial date has yet been assigned nor will such stay prejudice any of the parties involved.

5. Plaintiff consents to and joins in this Motion. Accordingly, Defendant respectfully requests that this Court stay the above-styled action and suspend the current Scheduling Order dated February 24, 2003, while the litigants are continuing to summarize settlement.

Respectfully submitted,
